“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.” - Jeremiah 29:11

Let Us Fix Our Eyes On Jesus. . .

In January’s newsletter I spoke of 20/20 vision and closed the article with God’s call in Hebrews 12:2-3 to “fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith.”

Why fix our eyes on Jesus? Because that’s the only way that our eyes can see 20/20 - with faith that finds its assurance and endurance in Him. Otherwise our eyes see only so far.

They can’t perceive the whole picture of life. Our sight is easily misled or deceived. If seeing is believing, our imperfect sight leaves faith hanging high and dry.

That’s why the previous chapter in the book of Hebrews (the great faith chapter of Hebrews 11) lays out for us many heroes and saints who have gone before us trusting not their own sight, but the words and promises of God. “Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see.” Even living as very visually oriented people in a very visible world, our strength and hope for living isn’t found in what we see, but in the truth we can trust as God has declared to us.

As you read this, we’ve just begun the season of Lent - an important time of considering our faith in God who suffered and died for us. I get it. It’s hard to see and believe that anyone subjected to suffering and dying as Jesus was would have anything to say about rescuing and saving us. It seems outrageous to some that we would even consider following Jesus. But our relationship with our saving God is rooted not in our sight, but “Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see.”

- Hebrews 11:1

in faith. During Lent we’ll consider faith from the perspective of Matthew’s Gospel as we journey together as God’s people!

Blessings in Him!

- Pastor Aaron

Stewardship Minute

No one ever outgrows his or her need for the Gospel. The Good News of forgiveness of sins, life and salvation is available only because of the sacrifice and saving work of Jesus Christ, the Son of God and only Savior of the world. In all stewardship preaching and teaching, it must be made clear that it is the Gospel of Jesus Christ that motivates Christians into action.

HELPING HANDS

Are you or someone you know in need of help?

HELPING HANDS is a part of Memorial Lutheran's Outreach Team and is headed by a volunteers who are willing to do light building and maintenance work, for those who are physically or financially unable to do the repairs themselves, as a way of being the hands and feet of Jesus. The Helping Hands team will do small home repairs that will provide for, or increase the safety and livability for people in their homes, both in our church family and community alike.

If you have the need for some help or know someone in need, please contact Kathy at the church office.

GOD'S WORD TRANSLATION

MINISTRY INVOLVEMENT!

So far 2020 has been very busy! Busy isn't always good, but this busy is! The Ministry Team is excited about the New Member Orientation & how it is coming together. We have also started working on an "Opportunity Fair" where our many groups and organizations will come together to explain and answer any questions that new and current members might have. There will be more on this in the future months.

As we are learning in the New Member Orientation Classes: God made us all unique. We all have different gifts to use to glorify our God. As Paul, wrote to the believers in Ephesus in Ephesians 4:12: "...To equip His people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up." Please keep this in mind as opportunities to serve come up at Memorial. We are family... and our Father in Heaven loves each and every one of us uniquely.

God bless you and your unique Spiritual Gifts!

INSIGHTS FROM LIZ . . .

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

For Lent, we are handing out to families the "A is for Ashes" devotional book. Families can use this tool at home to learn, pray and grow closer to God throughout the Lenten season. We will also be looking closer at the letters during the Kids time in worship and see what God has in store for us. Lent is a time to stop and reflect and repent, knowing that the Savior has come for us. May God bless you and fill you with His Spirit to know the importance and love of Jesus.

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, ²fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before Him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. ³Consider Him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart." Hebrews 12:1-3 Zingers—This group for 1st and 2nd Graders will meet on May 13th for a Pizza Party. We take a break during Lent and Easter.

Club 345—The Armor of God

(Odd Wednesdays from 6:30pm—8pm)
We take a break during Lent to allow families to attend Midweek services. Club 345 will meet again on Wednesday, April 15th & 29th to finish our look at the Armor of God and the final Pizza Party on May 6th.

Palm Sunday—April 5th Sunday School Kids Singing—

The Sunday School Children will be singing in our worship services! Preschoolers-5th Graders will sing at the beginning of the 9:20 AM & 10:45 AM services. The children are learning the songs in SS the weeks prior.

INSIGHTS FROM HAILEY JO. . .

STUDENT MINISTRIES

A couple weeks ago, some of our high school students were asking some great questions about the relationship between God and His people. One of those questions stood out to me: "How does God knowing what's going to happen next not also mean He's controlling what happens next?" In other words, "If something negative happens in life, doesn't that mean that God is either doing the negative thing or wants us to experience it?" Difficult question indeed! Yet, there are countless stories in scripture of God being present during difficult situations, turning those hardships into blessings and sometimes even rescuing His people from difficulties. Spend some time with your students this month, talking about life's struggles and how God uses those struggles to point His people back to Him. "Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness." -James 1:2

Upcoming Schedule

THANKS, GOD!

(written by Connie Gilbride - reprinted from March 2009 Memorial newsletter)

Children do it best! Teeth brushed and all snuggled into their warm jammies, they fold their little hands and squeeze eyes so tightly shut, not a sliver of light could shine through. Then it begins: the long (often unending) list of thanks to God. Thank you for Mommy. Thank you for Daddy. Thank you for my puppy. Thank you for my house. Thank you for my food. Thank you for... They're the best at saying Thanks, God - aren't they?

I've been thinking about the word, thanks. One of its meanings is: to express gratitude or appreciation. We express gratitude and appreciate to God through our prayers - just like those little children praying bedtime prayers.

I am reminded of another way we say, Thanks, God:

This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of God's people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God. (2 Cor 9:12)

According to this Scripture, we also say Thanks, God, when we serve. And - not just Thanks, God, but overflowing, abundant, more than we can hold thanks!

When our son, Matt, was about two or three years old, he LOVED to wash dishes. He pulled up a chair in front of the sink and was soon up to his armpits in soap suds (the more - the better). There was often more water on him than in the sink - but he was helping. At 5 years old, he helped collect all the dirty bath towels and put them in the washing machine and got to push the button. 'Helping' was what 'big boys' got to do.

He was so excited to help. He was overflowing with, Thank you, Mommy, when I didn't scoot him away from the sink and tell him I would do it myself. I can't tell you how my 'Mom' heart was bursting with love for him at those times (most of the times). Not so much that he was 'doing' something for me. It was because he wanted to be with me and do what I was doing.

Here at Memorial, when we serve (whether as adults or as children), we are definitely supplying the needs of God's people. Even more importantly, as we serve, God's Word also says, it (our service) is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God.

If you have been looking for a way to say, Thanks, God - please give Colleen Keiser a call or send her an e-mail (getinvolved@memorillutheran.net) Everyone needs the opportunity to roll up their sleeves and get up to their armpits in soap suds.
